

Since I have heard KLOVE for the first time over a year ago, I listen to nothing but KLOVE because it supports wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on me as well as my community. I will listen to no other station. If it would be displaced by an LPFM station, I would hit the off button instead of changing the channel. KLOVE is in the best interest of my community. Thank you for your time.